Introduction

I was born on (put the date). I am the son of Mr. Reddy Ramamurthy and Eswaramma Lakshman (add your parents names). I am the/an (Put the nth/only) child. (My brothers and sisters are ____).

As a kid, I was always fascinated with business. People earn by providing a product or a service. I would look at all the shops and businessmen in our neighborhood and would compare them with each other, contemplating their business strategies and who were more successful than others. Of course, I did not have the words to describe my thoughts. They were just concepts and ideas that even as a kid I was already toying with. My parents recognized my interests as I was constantly asking them questions. They are a businessman and a businesswoman and a great source of information and insights. My father also told me that I would enjoy trips to his work when I was young, role playing my dad, as if I was a manager myself. My father is the head manager at Sri Deepthi Auto Mobiles. I have always admired my dad at his work.
